

KELCY HYDE

Singer + Songwriter

Emerging on the Nashville music scene, Kelcy Hyde is making her dream for country stardom a reality.

After graduating high school in Las Vegas at 16, Kelcy moved to Nashville to jumpstart her career in country music. In a short time, the ambitious young artist has performed at renowned music venues (12th & Porter and The Bluebird Café) and played on tour with established country artists (Trace Adkins, Gretchen Wilson, Big & Rich and The Farm).

“ Quitting is just not an option! ”

While Kelcy's talent is undeniable, it's her disposition and winning attitude that puts her well above Nashville's other aspiring musicians. In an interview with Rick Moore of the Nashville Music Guide, Kelcy asserted, "Quitting is just not an option!"

These efforts have not gone unnoticed, as her talent has gained much public and media attention from the Southern Music Line to American Veterans Radio.

Kelcy's first EP titled "Your Heart Amazes Me" received rave reviews across the Internet, and her next single, "Boots Off" is scheduled to drop later this year.
